

Mary Grace Nadela - A Fatality of MV Princess of the Stars Tragedy

Mary Grace Nadela, a Manila-based Nadela whose roots can be traced to Cebu, is one of the victims of the MV Princess of the Stars tragedy.

Due to copyright protection, I cannot reproduce any articles pertaining to her but can only provide you with the following link.

Inquirer.net - <http://www.inquirer.net/specialfeatures/education/view.php?db=1&article=20080627-145109>.

I understand that Mary Grace just graduated from BS in Computer Science and her trip to Cebu was a graduation gift from her mother. The Nadela Clan extends its condolences to the bereaved family of Mary Grace and her aunt who also perished in the incident. I also wish to encode her and her family in the database. But I only have very few info about her. Should anybody know who her grandparents, parents and siblings are, please email me.

P.S. I just discovered that Mary Grace registered in this website (Family Tree) last April 30, 2008 but she did not give any information about herself.
